I am writing you to express my feelings on the proposed "Bank of Walmart". I personally do not feel Walmart should be able to have it's own bank and I have several good reasons for that; one being that Walmart is already so huge and has literally taken over the super store business while other smaller businesses either suffer or go out of business. While I understand that everything is fair in business, cornering the market of one business that you do know something about is enough but asking to dip your hands in another business that you know nothing about just so you can control more and more and more is not fair. I know I'm just a simple individual who's words may not mean alot but I would appreciate your consideration as you make your decision regarding this subject.

Thank you.
